MOTION CARRIES, 3-0

Information Items

1. Bremerton Pilots Association (BPA) Youth Aviation Scholarship Presentation – Doug Haughton and Kevin Hurley

Mr. Hurley, BPA's Youth Aviation Scholarship liaison, introduced recent scholarship recipient Riley Schaefer who is active duty military.

Mr. Schaefer expressed his appreciation to BPA and the Port and discussed how receiving the scholarship will play a role in his goal of going to Alaska and getting his float plane license then continuing on to becoming an instructor. Mr. Schaefer responded to questions from the Board and discussed how he gained an interest in aviation. The Board congratulated Mr. Schaefer on his accomplishment.

Commission New Business

Commissioner Strakeljahn stated he was overwhelmed by Commissioner Stokes' announcement that he would not be running for reelection and indicated there are three candidates running for the position and, although he wishes them all luck, he will not be specifically endorsing any candidate. Commissioner Bozeman concurred.

Staff Reports

Jim Rothlin, Chief Executive Officer

- Reported on Sound West Group's recent Opportunity Zone Symposium which included a presentation on their Marina Square development project. Commissioner Bozeman spoke during the presentation regarding the Port's role and how we are partnering in the process.
- Along with Commissioner Bozeman, met with the economic impact study group and discussed the goals and what the Port is looking for; it will be mid to late summer when the study is complete.
- Met with a landowner to the south of the airport and discussed transportation issues and how we can work together.

Commission Reports

Commissioner Bozeman

- In reference to the economic impact study meeting, he stated he was impressed with the people involved in the study and is excited about receiving the results. Once received, he proposed hosting a meeting to share the information on the impact the Port makes on the community.

Commissioner Strakeljahn

- Reported on the recently attended Washington Public Ports Association spring conference providing highlights and factoids. He emphasized the legislative report on the Governor's newly created airport siting committee which the Port's new Airport Manager, Warren Hendrickson, will be actively involved with it.

Executive Session - None

Adjournment

There being no further business before the Board, the meeting was adjourned at 6:31 p.m.
